

Himalayan Mission End of Year Review 2016

Thank You

As one year comes to an end, and another begins, we at Himalayan Mission would like to say thank you to all our supporters. With your prayers and donations, you are making an impact in one of the most remote mission fields in the world.

Thanks to you, we have been able to serve our local and surrounding communities by providing free educational resources for slum children, Bible and leadership training for pastors of North India, and we have evangelized to the community through door to door ministries and outreaches to win lost souls for Christ.

In 2017, we will embark on an exciting new chapter as we break ground on our new building project. Please visit our website at www.himalayanmission.org for updates on this project and for ways you can partner with us and make a difference for the Kingdom.

Christmas Beyond the Manger

I would like to wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year! We all know that Christmas is a time of celebration around the world. We celebrate Christmas with our traditions such as displaying scenes of Christ's birth, decorating our homes, churches, and trees, singing Christmas carols, and by exchanging gifts with our loved ones.

Celebrating the birth of Jesus during the Christmas season has happened among believers for centuries, but today, I challenge you to look beyond the manger. Allow your hearts to grasp the urgency of reaching the lost in our world. I believe we, as Christians, have stayed long enough around the manger celebrating our Lord's birth and have failed to notice the magnitude of lost, unreached souls, perishing in the midst of the Christmas season.

Christmas is a season which we celebrate the best gift of all time. We celebrate the gift that God gave his begotten Son, Jesus, to save sinners (John 3:16). Now, people who have walked in darkness can see a great light (Isaiah 9:2). This light will cause great joy for all people (Luke 2:10). The angels recognized the birth of Jesus as a chance to reconcile God with fallen mankind. This is the good news of the gospel.

I understand that every activity and tradition that we celebrate during the Christmas season is a display of our love and gratitude to our Savior, Jesus. But, let's not forget the main reason behind the festivities- that is our mandate to preach the good news to those who haven't heard the gospel. Many are still unreached around the world and let's all do our part to help fulfill the Great Commission.

Ps. DK Angami
